John Bouvier (1787-1851) was born in Codogno, France, and became a US citizen in 1812, was admitted to the bar in 1818 and began practicing law in Philadelphia. During his years of practice and study, he noticed the lack of a solid American law dictionary and worked on a new law dictionary for 10 years. One of his main goals was to distinguish American law from its English antecedent.
